The World and '06.

The members of the Class of 1906 have struck out into the whirl of business and profession. Many of them are teaching, some studying law and medicine; others have entered business activities. Electrical companies have taken a large part of the class, while others are coaching athletic teams. The ministry has taken its share also.

Those teaching are French, who is at Ripley, N. Y., and is principal of the high school there; Hallock is in Clinton High School; Haven is at Port Jennings, Ohio; Kellogg is assistant instructor of biology in Massachusetts Institute of Technology at Boston; Lawrence is recovering from a serious illness; McLean is at San Juan, Porto Rico, and intends to go to Auburn Theological Seminary next year; Sicard is in Peekskill, athletic coach and instructor in the military school; Maynard is at Haupaug, Long Island, N. Y.; Sittig is at Nazareth, Pa., in the military school; Tanner is at St. Mary's College, St. Mary's, Kentucky; Fitch is at Glen Ridge, N. J., and Garvey is at Pulaski, N. Y.

Those studying law are, Bennett, at Albany Law School, Albany, N. Y.; Driscoll, Harvard Law School, Cambridge, Mass.; P. A. Miller is reading law in a Herkimer law office; Nellis is at Albany Law School; Stryker and Spedick are at Columbia Law School, New York City.

The men at the various seminaries are: Edgerton, Melrose and Roosa at Auburn Theological Seminary, Auburn, N. Y.; Thompson is at Princeton Theological Seminary, Princeton, N. J.

The medics are: Crawford, at Buffalo Medical College, Buffalo, N. Y.; Kinney, at Hahnemann Medical Col-

A Series of Lectures.

During the winter term there will be a course of lectures given by members of the faculty. Their object is to fill a long felt want at Hamilton for a series of instructive entertainments. The lectures will be outside of the curriculum, and will embrace studies of the art and architecture of the Mediterranean countries. Hamilton has a faculty whose interest is not wrapped up in the small cycle of a class room, but who have traveled extensively and are fully competent to deal with the subjects.

The cost of the lectures will be merely nominal, a half dollar for the series of six, or a quarter for a single lecture. This is for the defrayment of incidental expense. The lectures will be illustrated by stereopticon slides. Prof. S. J. Saunders will run the stereopticon. There will be six lectures, as follows: Egypt, by Prof. Davenport; Athens, by Prof. Ebeling; Rome, by Prof. Harry Ward; Florence, by Prof. Shepard; Constantinople, by Prof. Wood; Holland, by Prof. Morrill.*

Any surplus money will be turned into the treasury of the Athletic Association. The faculty desires those interested in athletics to do all in their power to increase the attendance. There is no restriction, anybody who cares to, may come.

In connection with the lectures there will be a list of the bibliography in the college library. Books in the Clinton and Utica library as well as those in the college library will be included in the list. This is for those who may wish to read further into the subjects.

Syracuse Wins.

Last Saturday Syracuse beat the Varsity at Syracuse by a score of 36 to 0. Crippled as we were by the absence of three regulars and on a muddy field where weight was the prime factor and speed out of the question, the fellows played a game that reflected naught but credit on them. The home team averaged about 200 pounds and on this they relied and by virtue of it they won. On end runs or in other plays, where skill, speed and headwork are essential the orange failed miserably and accordingly she confined her plays to mass plunges thru center and tackle. Stimson and Powell played the star games for Syracuse. With us everybody played his hardest and none shone. The game in detail:

Brown kicked off for Syracuse, sending the ball over the goal line. Holley kicked out from the twenty-five yard line to Syracuse. Reynolds here tried a plunge, Stimson hit left guard for a couple of yards and then Hamilton held, forcing Banks to punt. The kick was a good one, sailing about 40 yards and just over Holley's head. Holley, however, touched it, and the pigskin went rolling down toward our goal line. Brown ran after the ball and in trying to pick it up, stumbled and kicked it over the line, where a Syracusean fell on it for a touchdown. No goal.

Stimson received the ball on the twenty-five yard line and was downed without gain. Leavenworth got the ball on a fumble by Dudley. Holley lost ground on an attempt at a quarterback run, but McLean made first down on a forward pass. Syracuse took the ball on downs. Stimson plowed left guard for half a dozen yards, and on the next play McLean threw the orange quarterback for a loss. Hamilton got the ball and took it to Syracuse's two-yard line. Two plunges were tried with no effect and Holley gave the signal for a drop kick which failed by about two yards.

As soon as the ball was in play again Syracuse punted to Holley, who made a very pretty run for twenty-five yards, being finally downed by Stimson. Hamilton was forced to kick, Holley again attempting a goal which failed. Stimson made five yards around left end and seven thru left tackle. Syracuse got about thirty yards on a forward pass to Brown. Swetman broke thru and downed Stimson for a two-yard loss. Brown hurdled to the result of a fifteen-yard penalty, and Hamilton held for downs. Powell was at this point substituted for Banks at quarterback. McLean got a couple of yards on a buck and Welch ten yards on a forward pass. Holley was forced to kick. The punt was received by Brown, who came back twelve yards. Powell recognizing the futility of the tactics employed up to this point sent Stimson thru center for a gain of eight yards and followed this by similar gains thru the same place. The result was a touchdown. No goal.

Brown received the kickoff and returned the ball about fifty yards. Syracuse was compelled to kick. Hamilton could gain no ground and Syracuse took the ball. A couple of line plunges brought the ball to two-yard line, where we held the heavy weights for two downs, but Dudley finally carried the ball over for a touchdown—a touchdown that was remarkable in that it was made when there was but half a second to play.

SECOND HALF.

Stimson, at the opening of the second half, withdrew in favor of Barry. Swetman kicked off to Cardigan. Barry made six yards thru left tackle, and another thru left guard. Then by gains of from five to ten yards the orange crossed our goal line again. No goal.

Barry received Swetman's kick and made twenty yards. By some more line plunges, a fifteen-yard gain on a forward pass to Park and a left end run by Barry, Syracuse carried the pigskin to the middle of the field. Williams got thru the 235 pound center and spoiled the next play. Hamilton got the ball on downs, but her possession was of very short duration. Syracuse tried a run around right end, but this resulted in a loss of a couple of yards, as Welch, who was playing on the other side of the line, caught the man with the ball and threw him. Then, once more, the center bucks were effective to the result of another touchdown.

McNamee caught the next kick-off and ran the ball back seven yards. Leavenworth slung Barry for a loss. Powell made a quarterback run of ten yards and was downed by Welch. Powell worked some more plunges and Dudley got over the line for a touchdown. Goal.

Schwartz kicked off to Park, who was tackled by Swetman after having gone about five yards. Dudley hit left tackle for three substantial gains and Park made ten yards on a forward pass. Here Thomas was substituted for Osborn. Another forward pass, a line plunge by Dudley and a quarterback run by Powell netted about thirty yards. Holley intercepted a forward pass. Hamilton tried a fake kick to Leavenworth, but Powell got the ball and once more by gains of five, ten and fifteen yards the ball was carried down the field for another touchdown.

Barry returned Schwartz's kick about thirty yards. Welch got the ball for Hamilton on a fumble by Park. The game ended with the ball in Hamilton's possession on Syracuse's forty-yard line.

Trustees' Meeting.

The semi-annual meeting of the Board of Trustees of Hamilton College was held at Truax Hall Tuesday afternoon. Those present were: Chas. C. Kingsley, Utica; Hon Charles A. Hawley, Seneca Falls; Rev. Dr. George B. Spaulding, Syracuse; George E. Dunham, Utica; Hamilton B. Tompkins, New York; President M. W. Stryker, College Hill; Gen. Charles Smyth, Clinton; Charles B. Rogers, Utica; Col. William Cary Sanger, Sangerfield; Oliver E. Branch, Manchester, N. H.; Samuel F. Engs, New York; Samuel H. Adams, Auburn.

The meeting was opened with prayer by Rev. Dr. Spaulding. Letters and telegrams were read from several of the absentees.

President Stryker presented a letter from Dr. Oren Root asking, under his physician's directions, leave of absence for a term, which was granted. The president reported the employment of Prof. Charles C. Grove as an instructor in mathematics.

Treasurer Rogers made his semi-annual report. In round numbers the New South College will cost $90,000, of which all but $12,000 has been subscribed. The hope was expressed that the balance would be speedily forthcoming. The treasurer also presented the plans for the proposed sewer system, work on which is under way.

President Stryker reported the death of Chauncey S. Truax, which occurred since the last meeting of the board. Messrs. Adams and Tompkins were appointed a committee to prepare a special minute to be spread upon the records of the board.

Contributions and expressions of opinion are solicited from the student body and from interested alumni.

AS A GENERAL RULE the various activities of the college should take place on the Hill or in Clinton. It is by holding them here that we best advertise the college and show our friends what a really exceptional place Hamilton is. Yet we can conceive of conditions under which a departure from this precedent would be advisable. It has been the custom to hold Sophomore Hop in Clinton and we believe this custom should be generally followed. As is elsewhere announced in this issue of LIFE the Hop is to be held in Utica this year in connection with a Musical Club concert. This arrangement will make for the success of both the concert and the Hop. Having them at the same place and on the same night will be a strong inducement for everyone in college to attend. On this ground we believe the departure to be justifiable.

BOTH THE ALUMNI and undergraduates of Hamilton are deeply interested in the proposed candidacy of Elihu Root, '64, for the next President of the United States. That he is worthy of the honor and competent to fill the office none will gainsay. That he has given his best effort, and that no mean one, for his country none will dispute. If elected in 1908 he will step fittingly from Secretary of State to President. We do not know that he even desires to become President; but we do know that he would make a strong one. Hamilton hopes for his election in 1908. The Tribune meets the argument of those who oppose him because of his position as attorney to large corporations:

"Here is a man who has given his time and energy to the United States. He has spent his private fortune in his country's cause as freely as any of the group who surrounded George Washington. His ability has not only been freely given but it has been in the highest sense valuable to his country. And yet there are some who pretend that such a man is not available as a presidential possibility because he has served as attorney to large corporations.

"The largest corporation in America is the government of the United States, and no corporation is in more need of experienced advice. The government has battles on hand against powerful corporations organized for private gain and able and willing to pay the highest prices for legal aid. When a man who by nature and training is capable of commanding the highest rewards from these financial giants has the patriotism to devote his intellectual endowments to serving the public it should not be counted against him that he has gained his experience in studying the legal problems of corporations. He knows, if any man does, the weak spots in their armor.

"In dealing with foreign nations the President of the United States must encounter the finest intellects of the world and prove superior to them. Would it be a disadvantage to the United States if the President had proved himself in various fields of activity one of the clearest reasoners, most brilliant lawyers, and most gifted constructive statesmen of his time?"

THE LOVELY HILLTOP CAMPUS blossoms bright with autumn's dew, the trustees with their prosy beards and solemn brows have come and gone and left our walls serene. The Freshman class with all its freshness abounds in classic knowledge and will keep our Alma Mater's breast and brain as pure as its predecessors ere have done. If, however, this prematurely wise class would but for a moment reflect that it did not make the college and its contents, but that the college is endeavoring to mould into some recognizable form the embryo of 1910, and if 1910 would step up and "kiss papa," or rather mama, the three and more especially the two upper classes would be highly grateful.

Hughes at 11:20.

It is reported that Mr. Hughes will go thru Clinton this morning at 11:20, en route to Utica and the northern section of the state. He will stop at the Clinton station for a few minutes where those present will have an opportunity to see and hear him. This will give a good many fellows from the Hill a chance to air their Hughes' spirit by giving him a few Hamilton yells.

The Pedestrian Club.

Inspired by Prexy's sermon last Sunday "Tad" Weekes was filled with a desire to go to Rome, and after dinner he proposed the journey. His suggestion did not find great favor, but by dint of much argument he persuaded Pratt, Conklin and Wilcox to undertake the pilgrimage. At twenty-five minutes past two the little band left Carnegie, taking neither hats, purses nor scrip.

As soon as the sadness of leave-taking had died out the band formed themselves with fitting ceremony into a Pedestrian Club. Pratt, because he has the longest and most graceful stride, was chosen president; "Tad" was made vice-president for opposite reasons; Conklin then declared his candidacy for treasurer, and thinking that he came from too far west to know about graft and such evils, all agreed to trust him with the funds. The only office left was secretary and that naturally fell to "Snooze."

The route taken by the pilgrims was thru Westmoreland and Hecla. At the latter place a native, when asked for directions, sent them on the way to an insane asylum. His motive in doing so is not known. Another citizen corrected them in time, so that there was no harm done beyond the loss of some time.

Just before they came to the Appian Way they begged food at a country villa beside the road; a kind hearted old lady gave them four large slices of bread of which Pratt greedily devoured half, leaving none for "Snooze", who sadly looked on.

The rest of the journey was brightened by occasional meetings with Romans, who came to meet them. Just as the sun was setting the little band came upon the city. It was a very impressive sight, the domes and steeples beautifully touched by the glow of the fading sun. The weary travelers took new strength from the inspiration and ran down the hill into the city, singing and shouting for joy.

A hurried inspection of the city was made, and then the return to Utica. At a quarter of ten the returned pilgrims gave their yell in front of Carnegie and dispersed. Until weather prevents weekly pilgrimages will be made. This week the journey will be to Utica and the itinerary includes New Hartford, Clark Mills and other places of interest. The membership of the club will no doubt be larger this week as several have expressed a desire to join.

College Notes.

—Topic cards are out for Freshman prayer meetings.

—Prof. Miller gave an excellent talk at Silliman Hall Sunday.

—The historians of 1910 were put to the test Tuesday afternoon to stave off a "dink."

—One game has been played off in the tennis tournament this week, Joralemon-Day, 0-6; 0-6.

—Rev. Charles F. Goss, '73, the author of "The Redemption of David Corson," was on the Hill last Sunday.

—Schwartz, '07, acted on the board of judges for the Theta Phi oratorical contest at Clinton High School a week ago.

—The following are on the invalid list, resulting from football injuries: Barrows, '07, White, McLean, Holley, Cody, '08, Wilson, '09, Glover, '10.

—During the past week the water in the plunge has become very dirty, due to the fact that some of the Freshmen do not know that they are not supposed to use it for a bath tub.

—A squad of thirty men reported for the first basket-ball practice of the season. There are several players of ability among the Freshmen and these with last year's who are left ought to turn out a winning team. Captain Kuolt intends to work the men hard for the remainder of this term in preparation for the game with Yale on January 10th.

—The following alumni have been on the Hill this week: MacDonald, '06, Tompkins, '65, Sherman, '05, Love, '06, Merrick, '05, Adams, '91, Hudson, '51, Johnson, '00, Munger, '05, Heacock, '06, Peterson, '94, Butler, '98, Merwin, '99, Scott, ex-'07, Hallock, '06, Croft, '03, Seymour, '72, Henderson, '00, Love, '83, Engs, '83, Hawley, '72.

Musical Clubs.

As has already rumored around college, the proposed joint concert with Colgate University has been called off by Colgate. Their reason for this action was that they insisted on the Saturday night of the Colgate game. To this date the Hamilton management could not and would not agree. We felt that if the Glee Club were allowed to cheer and sing at the game in the afternoon it would be utterly incapable of doing itself justice in the evening. On the other hand, if the men were asked not to help the team along from the grand stand, a thing utterly out of keeping with our spirit here, not only would the cheering be appreciably weakened, but also the singing would be absolutely ruined. The Glee Club will be on hand to help the team to the very best of its ability on November 10th, whether we ever have another concert or not.

Another phase of the situation then presented itself to the management. Since the beginning of the term some fifty men have, with a very few exceptions, practiced hard and faithfully three times a week. Should their work and the work of the leaders be thrown away without remuneration? In this dilemma the Sophomore class generously came forward and offered to postpone Sophomore Hop and give it in Utica in conjunction with a concert by the musical clubs. The clubs will have a complete concert prepared, and will be assisted in making the performance a success by one of the best impersonators that has ever been in Hamilton, Dewey T. Hawley, '02. The date has been set as November 26th, Monday night before Thanksgiving. The place will be the Auditorium, Hopper and Genesee streets, Utica. A special car or cars will be run to Clinton shortly after the last dance, which will give time to those men having girls from Utica to take them home. This car will stop on signal at all stops. Those having partners from out of town, whom they wish to have stay in Clinton, can take them out on this special.

This arrangement will obviate the necessity of men returning from Clinton in the early morning to Utica with their girls and having to remain there for the rest of the night. The college owes it to the Sophomores and to the clubs to begin planning now generously to support this joint innovation.

Interclass Meet.

At four o'clock on Wednesday afternoon the inter-class track meet, which was postponed last Thursday on account of rain, was run off. The Freshmen won the meet by nineteen points—the same lead which they had at the close of last Thursday's events. Hatfield for the Sophomores did some good work, especially in the broad jump. The summary of events is as follows:

Pole vault—Leavenworth, '09, first; Leavenworth, '10, second. Height, 9 feet.

Two mile run—Knox, '10, and Renwick, '10, tied for first; Bullion, '09, third. Time, 11 minutes, 50 seconds.

High jump—Sherwin, '10, and Leavenworth, '10, tied for first; Blodgett, '09, third. Distance, 5 feet, 1 inch.

Low hurdles—Leavenworth, '09, first; Conklin, '09, second; Hatfield, '09, third. Time, 29 1-2 seconds.

Broad jump—Hatfield, '09, first; Leavenworth, '09, third; Moore, '10, second. Distance, 17 feet, 11 inches.

Score of meet—Sophomores 48; Freshmen 67.

Y. M. C. A. Notes.

Sunday afternoon the report of the Northfield delegation will be given at 4:30 p. m. in Silliman Hall. It was planned to have this two weeks ago but the Bilbe Study rally intervened. Five men from Hamilton went to Northfield and returned with some lasting memories and some pictures. The meeting promises to be an interesting one.

The Bible Study courses have been mapped out and will start Sunday. The Freshmen are invited to join a class led by Dr. Wood which meets every Sunday after chapel in Silliman Hall. The book which will be used is "Conversations of Christ," by Robert McBurney, and the class will meet for the first time next Sunday. The three upper classes are offered another course. These classes in each fraternity will meet once a week under the leadership of some man in the fraternity, using Mr. Robert E. Speer's book, "The Principles of Jesus." These leaders will come together every week for a discussion of the subject with Prof. E. J. Ward. The crowds are asked to choose leaders as soon as possible, as the first leader's class will meet Sunday directly after chapel in Silliman Hall, to talk over the first lesson.

Both books are well recommended.

It is fair to say that these courses are for every man in college, whether he belongs to the association or not. The study of the greatest book would be profitable to every one and by meeting in fraternity groups full and candid discussion is encouraged. Each man knows that he has not given this book a fair show; now the Association offers him a chance.

If there is sufficient call, a class for those who cannot join these groups will be organized.

The report of the Syracuse game reached the Y. M. C. A. about 5:30 in the afternoon and was announced then. The news of the R. P. I. game will probably come about the same time next Saturday and will be given out and posted immediately.
